

TIP OF THE WEEK # 68

Central Lines

The central line insertion at AUBMC is considered one of the risky procedures and requires an informed consent to be signed by the patient when it is done on elective basis.

The policy on the insertion of central lines states that it should be performed or supervised by physicians trained and certified in the procedure.

The post insertion care is as important as the insertion to prevent infection. It is clearly described in this policy:

<https://his.aub.edu.lb/accrm/policies/ICP/PCI025Insertion%20of%20Central%20Lines.pdf>