Regulations governing publication

Permission to publish requires proper completion, signing and approval of this form. Until a fully executed copy of this form has been returned to the applicant, permission cannot be granted.

Approval of this application authorizes publication only in a single new work of the material identified above. Such an authorization is not exclusive and the American University of Beirut does not thereby surrender its own right to publish or to grant others permission to do so.

The undersigned expressly assumes all responsibility for observing laws of copyright, literary property, and libel and covenants and is therefore responsible for any copyright infringement and agrees to exonerate, indemnify and hold the University and its officers harmless for and on account of any and all loss, cost damage or expense arising out of or in any way connected with the use which the undersigned makes or suffers or permits to be made of the materials identified above.

The undersigned shall acknowledge in the publication, under each published item, the source of the material used. Credit shall be given as follows: [Collection name] – [Call number] - American University of Beirut/Library Archives.

The undersigned shall present one copy, free of charge, of the publication to the Dept. of Archives and Special Collections of the American University of Beirut Library, as soon as it appears.

Fees for reproduction of materials requested by the undersigned are paid prior to reproduction.

I the undersigned pledge to abide by the above stated regulations.
