It gives great pleasure to announce the appointment of Dr. Abdel Kader El Tal as an Assistant Professor of Clinical Dermatology and Procedural Dermatology. Dr. El Tal will be an active medical staff with admitting and consultation privileges in the Medical Center.

Dr. El Tal is an MD graduate of class-2001 and is well-known to many within the AUBMC community. After his graduation, he completed one year of internship (PGY1) in the Department of Pediatrics (2001-2002), and three years of residency training in Dermatology (2002-2005) at AUB-MC. Following that, he moved to the United States where he completed another year of internship (PGY1) in General Surgery (2006-2007) at Albert Einstein College of Medicine in New York, followed by three years of residency training in Dermatology (2007-2010) at Wayne State University in Michigan. His training journey was completed following a year of Procedural Dermatology fellowship (2010-2011) at the University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center.

Following the years of training, Dr. El Tal held the position of Assistant Professor in Procedural Dermatology and Director of Dermatologic Surgery at the Department of Dermatology at Wayne State University (2011-2013).

Dr. El Tal is a current diplomat of the American Board of Dermatology (2010), an Associate Fellow of the American College of Mohs Surgery (2011), and member of the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery (2011).

Dr. El Tal is an outstanding and avid learner of Dermatology in general, and Procedural Dermatology, including Mohs Micrographic Surgery and Cosmetic Dermatology, in particular. He is a well-read and most up-to-date clinician and Dermatologic surgeon who is highly competent in rendering expert opinion in his field/s of interest.

I am sure that you will all join me in welcoming back Dr. El Tal to our faculty ranks and in wishing him success in his academic and service duties.

Dr. El Tal may be reached at the Department of Dermatology, extension 5340 or his clinic on the 3rd floor, extension 6795. His pager number is 0394.
