RG “WICK” ALEXANDER AT AUB
If I could do it again…

Dr. Alexander will be visiting AUBMC’s Division of Orthodontics and Dentofacial Orthopedics on January 27, 2012. However his first appearance at AUB was on October 2009 through a one-day teleconferenced course with New York University (see News and Events archive on this site). In addition to private practice in Arlington, Texas, Dr. Wick Alexander is a clinical professor of orthodontics at Baylor College of Dentistry in Dallas, the University of Texas Dental Branch in Houston and New York University in New York City. He developed a unique orthodontic bracket system and treatment technique, The Alexander Discipline, and teaches his discipline throughout the world. Wick’s latest book is the “20 Principles of the Alexander Discipline”. He has also published many research and clinical papers.

If I could do it again...
R. G. “Wick” Alexander, DDS, MSD

Life’s lessons teach us many things with experience being the best of all instructors.

Topics include:
I. Looking Back
   - Focus on Family
   - Continue Learning – Take Final Records!
